

Closing the raw materials loop: How recycling can help secure Europe's low carbon future

When and where? Thursday 18th October, 9:00-13:00, Renaissance Hotel Brussels

Draft Agenda

8:45-9:15 – Registration and coffee

9:15-9:35 – Introductory remarks

- Rønnaug Sægvog Mysterud, Vice President Head of EU Affairs, Norsk Hydro

9:35-9:45 – Video Keynote

- Maroš Šefčovič, European Commission Vice President for the Energy Union

9:45-11:00 – Market spotlight - Supplying raw materials for battery value chains: How to establish EU industry leadership?

- Lowri Evans, Director General DG Grow, European Commission
- Denis Goffaux, Executive Vice President Energy & Surface Technologies, Umicore
- Karen Hanghøj, CEO, EIT Raw Materials
- Julia Poliscanova, Manager Clean Vehicles and Air Quality, Transport and Environment

11:00-11:30 – Coffee Break

11:30-12:40 – Policy debate - What meaningful actions are needed to break Europe's circular economy and low-carbon policy silos?

- Reinhard Bütikofer, Member of European Parliament
- Jo Rogiers, Senior Vice President Technology, Aurubis
- Eve Tamme, Counsellor for Environmental Affairs, Estonia Permanent Representation
- Jelmer Hoogzaad, Associate, Circle Economy

12:40-13:00– Closing Reflections

- Janez Potočnik, Chair of UN Resource Efficiency Panel

